Saint of the Day: Saint Edward The Confessor

After King Ethelred II of England died in 1016, a Danish invasion drove his son Edward into exile. Edward finally succeeded to the throne in 1041. During his reign, Edward repulsed invasion, helped restore the King of Scotland to his throne, remitted unjust taxes, and was noted for his generosity to the poor and strangers, and for his piety and love of God. He married to satisfy his people, but he and the queen remained chaste. He was reported to have the power to heal by touch and he built churches, including Westminster Abbey. After his death, Edward was canonized Saint Edward the Confessor in a deal between King Henry II and Pope Alexander III.

Have a safe and blessed weekend.

Most glorious St. Edward, you showed your devotion to God with patience, gentleness and generosity. Like you, may I serve to strengthen the Kingdom of God through patient prayer and charity. Amen.
