Saint of the Day: Saint Zita (1212-1272)

Saint Zita was born in Tuscany, Italy. At age 12 she was sent to work as a servant for a very rich family. She was abused and overworked from the very beginning. Her co-workers told the head of the household that Zita was giving food to the poor when she should have been baking bread. Upon returning to the kitchen, they found angels doing Zita's work. She is the patron saint of domestic workers.

Have a safe and blessed weekend.

Glorious St Zita, example of Christian virtues, obtain for me diligence in all my duties and patience in all my trials, so that, following your example and being helped by your intercession in the miseries of this life, I may be united to you in the life to come, where there shall be no more weeping and sorrow, but joy and gladness and everlasting happiness. Amen.
